Where the driving other cars benefit applies, the vehicle you are driving must be insured in its own right.

Under the sub section "Legal costs", the most we will pay for legal costs is £35,000 for any claim or claims arising out of one incident.

SECTION 2

You must pay an amount towards any claim that you make under section 2 of your insurance. This is called the 'excess' and more than one excess may apply to your claim. Details of all excesses, including windscreen, will be shown in your policy document and/or on your policy schedule. Where cover is agreed by our underwriters, an additional excess will apply while your vehicle is being driven by a young or inexperienced driver.

We may use recycled or non-original parts and equipment when repairing your vehicle.

If your insurance ends due to the total loss of your vehicle, you will not receive a refund of premium. If you pay your premium on the ERS instalment plan, the amount you owe for the years premium will be taken from the claim payment. When calculating the value of the vehicle we may take into account any discount on the manufacturer's recommended retail price when purchasing the vehicle.

We will not provide any cover for the loss of or damage to your vehicle or its contents by theft or attempted theft or an unauthorised person taking and driving it if it has been left unlocked (if locks are fitted to your vehicle), left with the keys in it, left with the windows open, roof panel or the roof of a convertible vehicle open or if reasonable precautions have not been taken to protect it.

If your vehicle is taken without consent by a member of your immediate family or a person living in your home, we will not provide any cover for the loss of or damage to the vehicle unless that person is convicted of theft.

We provide for up to £10,000 for loss of use of a cherished number plate though we will not pay if this loss of use happens due to permanent disqualification from driving; confiscation or seizure by the authorities or if you become bankrupt.
